MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release

11 October 2021

Round 2 of DCG Community Grants opening soon

Round 2 of the District Council of Grant Community Grants opened Monday 18 October 2021 and community groups, hall committees and sporting clubs are encouraged to apply.

A funding pool of $15,000 is available for projects that enhance community wellbeing and increase participation in social and leisure activities across the district. Applications are open for a five-week period and close on Friday 26 November 2021.

The grants are a great opportunity for clubs and community groups to assist with any needed upgrades to facilities, technology or, to purchase equipment or advertising materials said Mayor Richard Sage.

"I would like to encourage all community groups, whether they are hall committees or sporting clubs within the District Council of Grant to apply for a DCG Community Grant. We have funded many great projects over the last few years. So, please submit your applications by the due date to enable them to be considered as a successful project for this year's round. This is a great opportunity for your group to gain additional funding towards your project. Good luck with your application".

Applications for Round 2 Community Grants can be submitted online via Your Say DCG, if your club requires support with the application please contact Councils Community Engagement Officer Hayley Rowe, on 8721 0444.

Grant guidelines and further information is also available on Your Say DCG, on Council's Website, or in hard copy by request.
