4. Policy

4.1. Prohibition on Designated Decisions

- 4.1.1. The Council is prohibited from making a designated decision during an election period.
- 4.1.2. A decision of the Council includes a decision of:
 - a committee of Council; and
 - a delegate of Council.

4.2. Treatment of Other Significant Decisions

- 4.2.1. So far as is reasonably practicable, the Chief Executive Officer should avoid scheduling significant decisions (including major policy decisions) for consideration during an 'election period' and ensure that such decisions:
 - are considered by Council prior to the 'election period'; or
 - are scheduled for determination by the incoming Council.
- 4.2.2. The determination as to whether or not any decision is significant will be made by the Chief Executive Officer, after consultation with the Mayor. The Chief Executive Officer must keep a record of all such determinations made by Chief Executive Officers (including by previous Chief Executive Officers) and make this list available to candidates upon request.
- 4.2.3. Where the Chief Executive Officer has determined that a decision is significant, but circumstances arise that require the decision to be made during the election period, the Chief Executive Officer will report this to the Council.

The aim of the Chief Executive Officer's report is to assist Council Members assess whether the decision should be deferred for consideration by the incoming Council.

The Chief Executive Officer's report to Council will address the following issues (where relevant):

- why the matter is considered 'significant';
- why the matter is considered urgent;
- what are the financial and other consequences of postponing the matter until after the election, both on the current Council and the incoming Council;
- whether deciding the matter will significantly limit options for the incoming Council;
- whether the matter requires the expenditure of unbudgeted funds;
- whether the matter is the completion of an activity already commenced and previously endorsed by Council;
- whether the matter requires community engagement;

- any relevant statutory obligations or timeframes; and
- whether dealing with the matter in the election period is in the best interests of the Council area and community.

Council will consider the Chief Executive Officer's report and determine whether or not to make the decision.

4.3. Prohibition on the use of Council resources

- 4.3.1. Council resources must not be used for the advantage of a particular candidate or group of candidates.

For clarity, neither the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 nor this Caretaker Policy prohibits a council providing resources to all members of the public, which incidentally includes all candidates for election.

- 4.3.2. The following council resources must not be used for the advantage of a particular candidate or group of candidates and may only be used by council members, where necessary, in the performance of their ordinary duties as a council member:

- Mobile phones.
- Council vehicles.
- Council-provided tablets, landline phones, computers and other office equipment beyond that provided to members of the public (eg in a public library).
- Council-provided business cards.
- Requests to council employees to perform tasks which would confer an advantage on a candidate or group of candidates.
- The ability to issue invitations to council events.
- Council travel arrangements (eg access to council-negotiated rates for flights, accommodation or hire cars).
- Access to areas that members of the public cannot access, including areas within the property of third parties (eg a 'Mayor's Parlour' at a suburban football oval).
- Councils produced promotional brochures and documents.

4.4. Consequence of Contravening this Policy

- 4.4.1. A designated decision made by Council during an election period is invalid, except where an exemption has been granted by the Minister.
- 4.4.2. Any person who suffers loss or damage as a result of acting in good faith on a designated decision made by the Council in contravention of this policy is entitled to compensation from the Council for that loss or damage.

4.5. Application for Exemption

- 4.5.1. If the Council considers that it is faced with extraordinary circumstances which require the making of a designated decision during an election period, the Council may apply in writing to the Minister for an exemption to enable the making of a designated decision that would otherwise be invalid under Section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 and this policy.
- 4.5.2. If the Minister grants an exemption to enable the making of a designated decision that would otherwise be invalid under Section 91A of the Local Government (Elections) Act 1999 and this policy, then the Council and Council staff will comply with any conditions or limitations that the Minister imposes on the exemption.

4.6. Public Meeting of Candidates

- 4.6.1. The Council has determined that a public meeting of candidates will not be held in respect of general elections.
- 4.6.2. The Council's reason[s] for not holding a public meeting of candidates are:
 - the Council has determined that the costs of arranging and holding a meeting of candidates outweighs the benefits of such a meeting the Council considers that the task of informing members of the public of the issues in the community relevant to the election and of the policies and views of candidates is not appropriate to be undertaken by the Council.
