

Port MacDonnell & District
Maritime Museum Association Inc.

North of the jetty inside the Port MacDonnell Community Complex

5-7 Charles Street
Post Office Box 218
Port MacDonnell SA 5291

The Port MacDonnell Maritime Museum has the stories, displays and artefacts from the shipwrecks, the Lobster Fishing Industry and the early settlement of Port MacDonnell.

In Progress

from 2021

- Port MacDonnell from the 1860's.
- An audio-visual display of the local shorebirds & migratory flights 14,000kms to the Arctic Circle and back home.
- A display to celebrate the local Rock Lobster Fishing Industry.
- A collection of boating and fishing equipment illustrates the history of the Southern Rock Lobster Fishing Industry in Port MacDonnell. This display will be upgraded after 2021.

*Open 7 Days a Week
Monday-Friday 9am-5pm
Weekends 11am-3pm*

For group bookings please
phone The Port MacDonnell
Community Complex

Ph: (08) 8738 3000
portmacmm@hotmail.com

 Find us on Facebook
Admission Fees Apply

Port MacDonnell & District Maritime Museum

Audio Active

Shipwright

View and listen to the audio-active Shipwright display of the tools used in the trade.

Marconi Radio Room

Re-creation

See our re-creation of Marconi's Radio Room where he developed new radio technology for the safety of vessels at sea.

Original MacDonnell

Lighthouse

See photographs of the MacDonnell Lighthouse Station in 1859, now a rocky ruin on the southern tip of Cape Northumberland.

The Admella

Shipwreck

The 'Steam Ship Admella' Display features its signal cannon and bell, and a scale size replica of the ship which lost 89 lives after 8 agonizing days of rescue attempts that could save only 24 lives. The video acts out the desperate tale.

Captain Broadfoot on

The J. Lovett

See the actual cabin door in the re-created cabin of the 'James Lovett' wrecked in 1852, and the mysterious murder of Captain Broadfoot.

Southern Rock Lobster

Fishing

A collection of boating and fishing equipment illustrates the history of the Southern Rock Lobster fishing industry in Port MacDonnell.

Local

Marine Life

See our seal, penguins, shorebirds, crayfish, shells display, whale bones and skull of a killer whale.